

C2C Update

1. C2C has strong presence at City Executive Committee Meeting

Mayor and Executive debated the city's new long-term financial plan on May 24. Many members of Commitment 2 Community deputed, calling for a plan that includes adequate funding for affordable housing, transit, child care and poverty reduction. The plan goes to Council for debate on June 7.

Please continue to send messages to Councillors urging them to include action on poverty in the plan!

2. C2C's June 13 event: Mobilizing City Action on Poverty

C2C will hold its next open community meeting on Monday, June 13 at 6:30-9:00 pm at the OPSEU Hall, 31 Wellesley Street East (at Yonge).

Join us in planning action to ensure the city's new long term financial plan (and 2017 budget) include investments in jobs, housing, transit and poverty reduction.

Light supper will be provided. TTC tokens available. Child-minding available if requested by Wednesday June 8. Click here for a free ticket! For more information, contact Dimetros at djemere@socialplanningtoronto.org or 416-351-0095 x225.

3. May 31 - TTC fair fare rally

Join the Fair Fare Coalition and TTCriders for a rally at Nathan Phillips Square, Toronto City Hall, 12:00 pm noon on Tuesday, May 31st. Demand free fares for people on social assistance who are receiving Ontario Works (OW) and Ontario Disability Support (ODSP), and a $50/month pass for people on low incomes. EVERYONE IN TORONTO SHOULD BE ABLE TO RIDE PUBLIC TRANSIT!

4. June 2 - C2C Steering Committee meeting

All are welcome to attend the next C2C Steering Committee meeting on Thursday, June 2 at 10 am-noon at 2 Carlton Street, Suite 1001 (10th floor). Hear updates and help shape C2C's future actions.
